Brochure

Every job is a human job. Working with other people is essential, regardless of your respective field. Today's society is getting increasingly complex. On every possible layer. How do you and your team perform in an ever changing world?

When in doubt, go back to the basics. Research shows that in a knowledge based economy, human capital is by far the most valuable resource for organizations. With the training 'Communication' you will learn to optimize the balance between relation and task. So your team can move mountains.

PROGRAMME

This training of half a day includes:

- Systemic Work
- Deep Democracy
- Team Coaching
- Storytelling
- Social Innovation Techniques

AIM

After following this training, you will be able to look at your team from a systemic perspective. In addition, you have the tools to be more human in the workplace, for example by making meetings and gatherings more people oriented. You can also analyze a team and you get language to express where the bottlenecks are, so that you can contribute to the flow of the team. You will also learn to express yourself better, which will boost your self-confidence both professionally and personally. And thanks to various innovation techniques, you will immediately experience a change compared to when you entered.

FOR WHOM

This training is for managers, executives, and seniors who want to take their teamwork to the next level. Everything I do is tailor-made. In consultation with the client, this training can be given to beginners, intermediates, or advanced. Just where your needs lie.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

The study load for this training is equal to the duration of the training, namely half a day. No preparation is necessary. Also, there will be no explicit homework afterwards. The training itself is not only an educational experience, but also a powerful intervention.

Study materials do not need to be purchased. If the use of exercises in the form of paper instructions, cards or other working methods is necessary, the trainer will take care of this.

No prior education is required to follow this training.
