Brochure

Poetry has brought me so much. Writing poems gave my emotions a way out. Hence, with poetry I allowed myself to connect with myself. And through sharing poetry with others I have learned that I am worth being seen.

With the training 'In Between the Lines' I want to enable you to do the same. In a world that is constantly changing, it is essential to keep yourself close. I am convinced that self expression is a key element in that process. So be welcome, and write your story.

PROGRAMME

This training of half a day includes:

- Tools for creative writing
- A safe space to share your work
- Room for you as a human being

And, as an added bonus, you will walk away with my debut poetry album 'Weg met de Woorden' (or 'Away with Words') for free.

PURPOSE

After following this training, you will have awakened the poet in you. You write more smoothly than you did before this training. You have also learned to engage people with your story. Hearing the work of others has inspired you. And you have been listened to, without judgment.

FOR WHOM

This training is for creatives, poetry enthusiasts, and communications officers who want to take their writing skills to the next level. Everything I do is tailor-made. In consultation with the client, this training can be given to beginners, intermediates, or advanced. Just where your needs lie.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

The study load for this training is equal to the duration of the training, namely half a day. No preparation is necessary. Also, there will be no explicit homework afterwards. The training itself is not only an educational experience, but also a powerful intervention.

Study materials do not need to be purchased. If the use of exercises in the form of paper instructions, cards or other working methods is necessary, the trainer will take care of this.

No prior education is required to follow this training.
